2. [REDACTED] presented papers indicating that as of 31 December 1959, OC had approximately 1.3 million dollars in uncommitted procurement funds. He explained that this figure was only approximate and that each OC component should review requirements with the idea in mind of coming to the next board meeting prepared to establish OC priorities for expenditure of remaining uncommitted funds. The Board agreed that equipment requirements should be assigned priorities and procurement effected until money is depleted, and that requisitions for all needed gear should be prepared and ready for release in the event that additional moneys become available.
